

Alba Ceilidh Band

Yvonne MacLeod – accordion, Martin MacLeod – fiddle, Brian Cowan – banjo and caller. Formed 8 years ago, the band has played at numerous prestigious venues including Blair Castle, Glamis Castle, Fyvie Castle, St Andrews University, Edinburgh University and many more. They have had playing engagements abroad, in the Bahamas, Norway, Iceland and Greece to name but a few. Yvonne has played accordion in a number of Scottish Ceilidh bands including the Gallivanter. We look forward to a good evening of dancing with toe tapping music.

Jim Lindsay

Born and bred in the Kingdom of Fife, Jim started to play the accordion at the age of 6. While still a teenager, he was Scottish Accordion Champion in the early 1970s. Jim formed his band in the 1980s and since then has consistently been one of the most respected and in demand musicians on the Scottish music scene. His music is often featured on BBC Radio and he has produced several CDs. He is invited to play regularly in Europe, North America and New Zealand and is no stranger to the Blairgowrie Town Hall and we welcome him on this occasion.

John Wilkinson

Originally from Bankfoot, John learned to dance in primary school in 1958, and has gone on to teach dancing in a number of RSCDS branches across Scotland to demonstration standard. He has taught regularly at Summer School, been Depute Director 3 times and also Director of Winter School. His dancing and teaching have taken him throughout the UK, to almost every country in Europe, as well as Japan, Australia, Canada and more. He continues to teach social dancing in East Lothian. Therefore we are very pleased to have him with us here in Blairgowrie.
